INTRO

Oh Oh Oh...

Oh Oh Oh...

VERSE

Oh I once knew a blind man

Said the world's an illusion

Blinding everyone and concealing the truth

Oh the picture on your TV

Or the people that you see

Color or Black & White make no difference at all

CHORUS

Oh and blind vision sees beyond the sight

Oh and blind vision sees past the neon light

Oh and blind vision sees the big in the small

Blind Vision sees you sees you through it all

VERSE

White cane in his pale hand

Tapping into the minds of man

Shedding light so you can see true beauty's in the soul

In dark glares he sees it all

Says, "Be careful or you will fall

Turn a blind eye to the writing,

You think you see on the wall"

[CHORUS] X 2

BRIDGE

If you lose your bearings

Just close your eyes

You'll be able to see

The truth from the lies

[CHORUS]

OUTRO

Oh Oh Oh...

Oh Oh Oh...
